Collegian Clothes

AND SIX MONTHS HENCE

The average man buys two suits per year, but the average Clothier doesn't know how the suit he sells will look six months hence. How the suit looks is one thing and how it will last is another. How can you be sure? If you want wearing, lasting goodness you must have an Adler Collegian Suit or Overcoat. The prices range from $15.00 to 27 50. We have others as low as $8.50 and they are good trades too.

Sweaters for all from 50 cents to $7.00

We have about four dozen Grey Sweaters, the regular price is $1.00 and 1.25, we place these on sale for this week only at 89c
Sizes 24 to 44

If you need a good hard wearing Fur Coat you ought to see ours at $20.00 and 22.50, these are Black Dog, well lined and first-class in every way. Others priced up to $45.00.

Sheep lined Coats at $5.75, 6.25 and 6.75, the one at $6.25 is extra long and the $6.75 coat has a Wabab collar.

We have a big line of Rubbers, Leggings and Sheepskin, all prices and styles and we guarantee them all.

We have had a big sale on Stag Pants of the heavy all wool kind. You'll want a pair if you see them, they can't be beat at the prices and they are actually guaranteed. Another pair FREE if they rip.

Oh and let us show you some real good stuff at prices that are right.

"STABBED IN THE BACK"

How Many Barton Readers Have Felt Those Sudden Twinges?

Have you ever had a "crick" in the back? Does your back ache with a dull, heavy, draggy throb? Is it hard to straighten up after stooping? Hard to arise from a chair or turn in bed? Is the urine dark colored? Passages irregular?

When your kidneys need attention, use a tested kidney remedy. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the remedy that has cured thousands. Convincing proof of merit in Barton testimony.

A. V. Cloutier, Lake St., Barton, says: "I have tested Doan's Kidney Pills and know that they act just as represented. I was annoyed by lumbago and lameness in my back and could hardly straighten after stooping. The secretions from my kidneys were irregular in passage and there was sediment in them. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills brought me entire relief and I have had no trouble since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Trust Estate of C. T. A. Humphrey of Barton.

STATE OF VERMONT, In Probate Court, District of Orleans, ss. I, held at Newport in said district, on the 24th day of November, A. D. 1911. E. J. Smith, trustee of trust estate of C. T. A. Humphrey, late of Barton in said district deceased, presents his trustee account for examination and allowance, and makes application for a decree of distribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon it is ordered by said court, that said account and said application be referred to a session thereof, to be held at the Probate Office in said Newport on the 18th day of December, A. D. 1911, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon for hearing and decision thereon. And it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested by publication of the same three weeks successively in the Orleans County Monitor, a newspaper published at Barton, Vt., previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they may have, why said account should not be allowed and such decree made.

By the Court Attest,
R. S. Spooner, Register.

LOCAL NEWS

J. C. Babcock from Hardwick was a business visitor in this village Tuesday.

Paul Andrus from Barton visited his sister, Mrs. Clarence Woodbury, recently.

A. C. Chase from Greensboro Bend was a business visitor in this town Saturday.

Mrs. T. M. Crowley left Tuesday for Hardwick where she expected to enter the hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Howard Skinner and daughters left Saturday for Swanton, where they will remain until after Thanksgiving.

There were two successful deer hunters from this village last week. Mr. Balch and Bay Simpson. The latter very kindly divided the spoils with his neighbors.

The news of the sudden death in Whitman, Mass., of Dr. O. A. Bemis reached this town last Wednesday. Dr. Bemis was sixty-five years old and was for many years a successful physician of this town where he had many friends. He moved with his family to Whitman, Mass., about eighteen years ago.

From weekly reports sent by the teachers to the superintendent of schools, it appears that the average per cent of attendance of all schools in the town of Craftsbury up to the last two days of the fall term was 94 per cent. The banner school for high per cent of attendance was district No. 3, taught by Miss Margaret Morse, where the average attendance for the term was 99 per cent. District No. 1, taught by Miss Lora Witt, was next, with an attendance of 98 per cent. The average of no school fell below 90 per cent, which, on the whole, is a very creditable showing. The superintendent respectfully urges the same co-operation of parents with teachers for the remainder of the year, in order that we may, as far as possible, eliminate waste in school attendance. C. L. Cowles, superintendent of schools.

The untimely death of John Keir, who passed away Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1, at the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, was a great shock to the community. It is safe to say there was not another man in Northern Vermont that was so widely known as Mr. Keir. His genial and sunny disposition always won a permanent place in the hearts of all who ever knew him. It was always a pleasure for him to administer to the needs of those less fortunate, many deeds of charity came to his attention and never did he fail to recognize the needs, but few from him knew what he contributed to the work of charity and benevolence. Mr. Keir was born in Hatley, P. Q., 53 years ago, his parents being of Scotch descent. Coming to Greensboro at the age of 21 years, he entered the employ of his brother, H. A. Keir. After learning his trade he came to Craftsbury and was employed by Henry Hoyt, after about a year purchased the business of Mr. Hoyt and from that time conducted a growing and successful business, and today his business stands a monument to his strict business integrity and is one of the largest of its kind in this section. He leaves a widow and three children to mourn his loss, Fred C., Percy C., and Avis J., also an aged father, Duncan Keir of Hatley, P. Q., one brother, Henry A. Keir, of Lancaster, N. H., and two sisters, Mrs. William L. Mabon, of Craftsbury and Mrs. F. W. Carr of Newport. The esteem in which Mr. Keir was held was evidenced by the largely attended funeral, which was held in the M. E. church at Craftsbury, Saturday, Nov. 11. Mr. Allen conducted a private service at the late home as well as the service at the church. The Modern Woodmen, of which order he was a member, attended in a body. The interment was in the family lot in the Craftsbury cemetery. Seldom has there ever been such a beautiful display of flowers, among the many designs were 53 carnations from Mrs. Keir, crescent, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mabon; cross, children; pillow, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carr and Clarence Keir; spray of carnations and roses, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keir; spray of carnations, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bates and son of Los Angeles; spray of carnations, Mrs. Claude Fisher, pillow of roses, employees; spray of carnations, A. E. Connell; carnations, J. H. Currier; carnations, chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Keir, pillow of chrysanthemums, Miss Marion Cutler; spray of carnations, Paul W. Waterman; chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Shepard; wreath of roses, Mother's club, Newport; carnations, Miss Frances Larner; bouquet of chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Curtis, Frank Paddleford and E. C. Paddleford; carnations, Ladies' Aid society; chrysanthemums, grange; carnations, Miss Mary Spaulding; chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Williams; M. W. A., pillow of roses.

Ralph Williams was able to come home from the hospital Thursday and is improving since.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Burbank have closed their cottage and returned to their home in Walden.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hartson have returned from their visit to their daughter in Lyndonville.

The "Smallpox Fake" article which appeared in the Monitor last week was misleading. There are no newly infected families in town but several new cases in families where the disease had already existed, ranging from very mild to severe and in age from four weeks to 85 years. No meetings or public gatherings are yet allowed. There have been all told between 80 and 100 cases since the middle of August. Some families have been disinfected and released from quarantine, but more are still under strict quarantine. Both the state and local board of health consider the outlook encouraging if people are willing and do use necessary precaution.

Rev. I. O. Sherburn of Burlington will speak in the M. E. church next Sunday morning. This is to be a union service. All are cordially invited.

The entertainment and social given by the pupils of Miss Nettie Healey's school in East Albany Friday evening was pronounced fine by all who attended.

A very pleasant meeting of the Men's club was held in the Congregational church Monday evening. Congressman F. Plumley gave an excellent address, which was highly appreciated by a large audience. Refreshments were served.

All schools in town begin next Monday. The following teachers have been engaged. Mr. Ladd of Coaticook, P. Q., will teach the higher department of the village school with the same corps of teachers in the other grades; Morrill Hill, Lida Goss; Burton Hill, Miss LaFont; Kidder district, Grace Bryant; Brighton district, Miss Lang of Barton; Ware district, Miss Boynton.

The lecture Tuesday evening by Francis Lybarger of Philadelphia, Pa., on "Land, Labor and Wealth" was all that it was recommended to be. The lecture was instructive as well as attractive and conveyed an immense amount of information. The audience however was not as large as such fine talent should call forth, for it is seldom that a lecture of this class can be had in a little town like this. All who attended were loud in their praises of it.

LOWELL.

Mrs. H. A. Covey is ill in the Hanover hospital.

Fred Hardy of North Troy was in town Tuesday.

Miss Marjorie Sinclair spent last week in Westfield.
